Re: Chaim Lowenstein

Leave to appear at settlement conference on 12/12/2011

Lowenstein v. Kane 10-cv-02857 (District of Minnesota)

Dear Mr. Meringolo,

I represent Chaim Lowenstein in his civil case against Tom Kane, Jr. and Dietz-Kane and Associates for trademark infringement and other related matters currently before Judge Susan Richard Nelson in the U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota. Judge Nelson heard our motion for summary judgment on October 31 and ordered Lowenstein and Kane each to appear in person before Magistrate Judge Arthur Boylan for a settlement conference. A copy of the ECF Notice of the Order is attached. The conference has been scheduled for December 12, 2011 at 10:00 am in Magistrate Judge Boylan's chambers. As I understand it, Mr. Lowenstein would need permission of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York in order to appear at that settlement conference.

The issue of appearing telephonically was raised by Lowenstein during the last attempt at a settlement conference in late 2010 and Magistrate Judge Boylan denied his request at that time. The conference was held without Mr. Lowenstein's personal appearance but no settlement was reached. Opposing counsel has already moved to sanction Mr. Lowenstein for his past failure to appear. Judge Nelson did not comment on that motion for sanctions and has taken the motion under advisement. Judge Nelson did however order Mr. Lowenstein to appear in person at this upcoming settlement conference and stated that sanctions would be imposed if he failed to appear.

Please use this letter to support a request to the court in the Eastern District of New York to allow Mr. Lowenstein leave to travel to Minnesota in order to appear for the settlement conference on December 12, 2011. Please let me know if there are any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,
